

AFTER THE BATTLE.

The News of the Fight Continues to Come in Piecemeal.

Both Friend and foe must find out that "Twas a Famous Victory, and the Conquerors May Feel Proud of Their Laurels."

Missouri.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Latest returns prove that the Democratic triumph in Missouri is even more signal than was at first claimed. A solid Democratic delegation goes to Congress from the State, and the Legislature will be overwhelmingly Democratic. The total majority for the State ticket will probably foot up 50,000. Judge J. B. Gantt is elected Supreme Judge, L. E. Wolfe Superintendent of Schools and W. H. Hickman Railroad Commissioner. The Congressional delegation will stand: First District—W. H. Hatch. Second District—H. H. Mahan. Third District—A. M. Dockery. Fourth District—R. P. C. Wilson. Fifth District—John C. Tamm. Sixth District—J. T. Heard. Seventh District—H. H. Norton. Eighth District—John L. O'Neill. Ninth District—Seth W. Cobb. Tenth District—Samuel Byrne. Eleventh District—Richard P. Brand. Twelfth District—D. A. Beaumont. Thirteenth District—W. M. Fyan. Fourteenth District—Marion Arnold.

Illinois.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Latest returns show the election of Andrew B. Repp, Republican, to the office of State Treasurer and Superintendent of Schools, respectively, and that the Legislature will stand Republican on joint ballot by about five. The following are the Congressional elects: First District—Abner Taylor, Rep. Second District—Lawrence E. McGinnell, Dem. Third District—Allen E. Durbrow, Dem. Fourth District—Walter C. N. Worry, Dem. Fifth District—Albert J. Hopkins, Rep. Sixth District—John W. Taylor, Rep. Seventh District—Thomas J. Henderson, Rep. Eighth District—Charles A. Hill, Rep. Ninth District—Lewis E. Payson, Rep. Tenth District—Philip S. Post, Rep. Eleventh District—Benjamin T. Cable, Dem. Twelfth District—Scott W. Hill, Dem. Thirteenth District—William M. Springer, Dem. Fourteenth District—Owen Scott, Dem. Fifteenth District—T. B. Busey, Dem. Sixteenth District—J. D. Reeder, F. M. R. A. Seventeenth District—Edward Lane, Dem. Eighteenth District—William S. Foreman, Dem. Nineteenth District—James R. Williams, Dem. Twentieth District—George W. Smith, Rep.

Ohio.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—From official and unofficial returns received from all the counties of the State, except Ashland, Columbiana, Coshocton, Jackson, Marion, Medina, Monroe, Paulding, T. C. Scarce, Adams, and estimating them same as they were last year on the vote for Governor, the plurality of D. G. McCreary, Republican, for Secretary of State, is 15,129. The Congressional elects, as shown by the returns received, are: First District—William S. Storer, Rep. Second District—John A. Caldwell, Rep. Third District—George W. Hook, Dem. Fourth District—W. H. Harrison, Dem. Fifth District—Fred C. Layton, Dem. Sixth District—D. D. Donovan, Dem. Seventh District—W. H. Harrison, Dem. Eighth District—D. D. Hare, Dem. Ninth District—J. H. Outwater, Dem. Tenth District—Robert E. Doan, Rep. Eleventh District—M. H. Harrison, Dem. Twelfth District—W. H. Harrison, Dem. Thirteenth District—Irving Duncan, Dem. Fourteenth District—J. W. Owens, Dem. Fifteenth District—M. D. Harter, Dem. Sixteenth District—J. G. Warwick, Dem. Seventeenth District—J. A. Pearson, Dem. Eighteenth District—J. D. Taylor, Rep. Nineteenth District—E. B. Taylor, Rep. Twentieth District—Thomas L. Johnson, Dem.

Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Complete but unofficial returns from every county in the State give Patience Harrison, Republican, a plurality of 16,250 over Delamater, Rep. The Republican candidates for Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State, J. B. McQuinn, Messrs. Watres and Stuart, are no doubt elected, as both ran far ahead of Delamater in nearly every county. Latest returns from the twenty-eight Congressional districts of the State show the election of eighteen Republicans and ten Democrats. First District—Bingham, Rep. Second District—O'Neill, Rep. Third District—H. H. Mahan, Rep. Fourth District—R. P. C. Wilson, Rep. Fifth District—Harmore, R. P. Sixth District—H. H. Mahan, Rep. Seventh District—Harmore, R. P. Eighth District—Muttcher, Dem. Ninth District—Harmore, Dem. Tenth District—Harmore, Dem. Eleventh District—Harmore, Dem. Twelfth District—Harmore, Dem. Thirteenth District—Harmore, Dem. Fourteenth District—Harmore, Dem. Fifteenth District—Harmore, Dem. Sixteenth District—Harmore, Dem. Seventeenth District—Harmore, Dem. Eighteenth District—Harmore, Dem. Nineteenth District—Harmore, Dem. Twentieth District—Harmore, Dem.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—Reports from all parts of the State show that the election has been a veritable landslide for the Democracy. The entire Democratic State ticket is elected by big majorities. The Republican ticket, headed by Governor Hendricks, is defeated by about 15,000. Chairman Jewett of the Democratic committee finishes the following estimate of majorities: Majority on State ticket, 17,512; Senators elected, 19, hold-over, 14; total, 33,956. The Senate will consist of 22 Republicans and 19 Democrats, and the House will comprise 129 Republicans, 19 Democrats, 1 Independent Democrat. This is a Republican loss of 8 in the Senate and 23 in the House. Results in Congressional districts: First District—Randall, Rep. (one town missing), 8,644; Dem., 6,538. Second District—A. M. Dockery, Rep., 11,914; Dem., 10,753. Third District—Andrew, Dem., 14,932; Pierce, Rep., 11,075. Fourth District—O'Neill, Dem., 11,781; Copeland, R., 4,175. Fifth District—Hoar, Dem., 13,186; Fox, Rep., 10,888. Sixth District—Lodge, Rep., 14,585; Everett, Dem., 13,262. Seventh District—Coggswell, Rep., 12,512; French, Dem., 10,900. Eighth District—Stevens, Dem., 15,818; Greenhalgh, Rep., 11,233.

Ninth District—Williams, Dem., 12,288; Candler, Rep., 12,043. Tenth District—Walker, Rep., 11,112; Pratt, Dem., 11,156. Eleventh District—Coolidge, Dem., 9,349; Smailling, Rep., 9,234. Twelfth District—Crosby, Dem., 12,105; Rockwell, R. P., 11,112. The Congressional delegation thus stands seven Democrats and five Republicans—a gain of five Democrats.

Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 6.—The Republican candidate for Governor beaten; six out of seven Republican Congressional candidates defeated, and Senator Ingalls re-elected a subject of great doubt that is a situation in Kansas. There was a landslide—a regular avalanche—in Kansas. The 2,000,000 Republican majority was overwhelmed by the resistance force and buried beneath its destructive weight. The Farmers' Alliance did it, and it was a genuine surprise. Every political prophet predicted great strength for the Alliance, but the most sanguine of the Alliance, based on the success of even a probability. The chances for the Democrats seemed much brighter. The Republicans lost six out of the seven Congressional seats, and will stand another year. For the first time in many years the Republican delegation is broken to fragments. Only one Republican escaped the wreck, and that was E. H. Fuston from the Second district. The Democrats were successful, overwhelmingly so, the First District electing Thomas Donlight over the Republican, by 10,000 majority. Hon. E. N. Morrill, Rep., the present incumbent, defeated re-nomination. The Farmers' Alliance carried the other five districts, electing Clover over Perkins Rep. in the Third; O. S. Kelly in the Fourth; Davis over Phillips, Rep. in the Fifth; Baker over McNall in the Sixth; and Simpson over Hollowell in the Seventh. The Congressional delegation will stand Republican, 1; Democrat, 1; Farmers' Alliance, 5.

Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 6.—Latest returns from the State indicate a plurality of 20,000 and upward for George W. Peck, Republican, over the Democratic ticket. The State ticket was elected a majority of Assemblymen and the State Senate. In the lower house they will have a majority of thirty or over, and in the Senate a majority of twenty or over. The following are the Congressional elects: First District—H. A. Cooper, Rep. Second District—Charles Barwig, Dem. Third District—H. A. Cooper, Rep. Fourth District—John L. Mitchell, Dem. Fifth District—George H. Brockner, Dem. Sixth District—H. A. Cooper, Rep. Seventh District—Frank Coburn, Dem. Eighth District—Doubtful. Ninth District—Thomas Lynch, Dem.

Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—The indications are that the Democrats have elected their Governor by about 10,000 plurality, and the rest of the State ticket by a substantial vote. In Congressional elects, the Democrats have returned their candidates in the following districts, according to present reports: First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, Forty-first, Forty-second, Forty-third, Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, Fifty-first, Fifty-second, Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixty-first, Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, Sixty-ninth, Seventieth, Seventy-first, Seventy-second, Seventy-third, Seventy-fourth, Seventy-fifth, Seventy-sixth, Seventy-seventh, Seventy-eighth, Seventy-ninth, Eightieth, Eighty-first, Eighty-second, Eighty-third, Eighty-fourth, Eighty-fifth, Eighty-sixth, Eighty-seventh, Eighty-eighth, Eighty-ninth, Ninetieth, Ninety-first, Ninety-second, Ninety-third, Ninety-fourth, Ninety-fifth, Ninety-sixth, Ninety-seventh, Ninety-eighth, Ninety-ninth, One hundredth.

Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 6.—Governor Merriam's 24,000 plurality of two years ago has been reduced so greatly that there was apparent reason for the Democrats to expect that he had been defeated. Such, however, does not prove to be the case, for he is re-elected, but by a greatly reduced plurality. The claims made by his party associates ranged from 2,000 to 5,000. More made the claim that he had been defeated. The latter, One, and possibly two, officials chosen from the State ticket are Democrats. The Legislature, so far as any returns have been heard from, will stand Republican. The Democrats are claiming the majority, but admitting the possibility that a combination of the Alliance and Democrats might control the next Legislature in the next Legislature.

Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 6.—Six Democratic Congressmen, four Republicans, one district in doubt and a part of the Republican ticket defeated and the remainder of it in doubt is Iowa's verdict. The successful candidates for Congress are: First District—J. J. Secor, D.; Second, Walter L. Hayes, D.; Third, doubtful, probably D.; Fourth, H. H. Mahan, D.; Fifth, J. H. Outwater, D.; Sixth, J. H. Outwater, D.; Seventh, J. H. Outwater, D.; Eighth, J. H. Outwater, D.; Ninth, J. H. Outwater, D.; Tenth, J. H. Outwater, D.; Eleventh, J. H. Outwater, D.; Twelfth, J. H. Outwater, D.; Thirteenth, J. Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 6.—Complete returns from the whole State give Reynolds, D., for Governor, 45 majority, and Casey, D., for Governor, 514 majority. The city of Wilmington has gone for the Republican ticket. The Republicans elect their county ticket in Newcastle County by a majority of 100. The next Legislature will stand: Senate—Democrats, 5; Republicans, 4. House—Democrats, 11; Republicans, 7. There is no United States Senator to be elected.

New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The official returns from the Congressional districts of the State will not be known for some days. This, however, will make no change in the result, as reported by the Associated Press last night at ten o'clock, unless Coombs, D., Twenty-third District, is elected. New York's delegation in the Fifty-second Congress, should Coombs be defeated, will stand: Senate—Democrats, 11; Republicans, 7. House—Democrats, 11; Republicans, 7. There is no United States Senator to be elected.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Returns are too incomplete to make any accurate estimate, but with the present Republican majority in the State Senate, the Democrats are sure of a safe majority on joint ballot, and the election of a Republican to succeed Leland Stanford. The following are the Congressional elects: First District—H. A. Cooper, Rep. Second District—H. A. Cooper, Rep. Third District—H. A. Cooper, Rep. Fourth District—H. A. Cooper, Rep. Fifth District—H. Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 6.—John P. Baxter, Rep., 11,315; Russell's plurality, 4,880. The Senate will consist of 22 Republicans and 19 Democrats, and the House will comprise 129 Republicans, 19 Democrats, 1 Independent Democrat. This is a Republican loss of 8 in the Senate and 23 in the House. Results in Congressional districts: First District—Randall, Rep. (one town missing), 8,644; Dem., 6,538. Second District—A. M. Dockery, Rep., 11,914; Dem., 10,753. Third District—Andrew, Dem., 14,932; Pierce, Rep., 11,075. Fourth District—O'Neill, Dem., 11,781; Copeland, R., 4,175. Fifth District—Hoar, Dem., 13,186; Fox, Rep., 10,888. Sixth District—Lodge, Rep., 14,585; Everett, Dem., 13,262. Seventh District—Coggswell, Rep., 12,512; French, Dem., 10,900. Eighth District—Stevens, Dem., 15,818; Greenhalgh, Rep., 11,233.

last year, Dixon, Dem., is elected to Congress by 490 over Carter, Rep. The Democrats have elected four State Senators, the Republicans two, with two in doubt. The Republican State committee says it will require the official count to decide the Congressional result, though it still claims the State for Carter by 15. The same committee claims the election of five Republican Senators.

Washington.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Returns from 150 precincts give Wilson, R. P., for Congress 11,750; Carroll, Dem., 4,500. If this ratio is maintained Wilson's majority will exceed 6,000. The Legislature will stand Senate—Republicans, 31; Democrats, 8. House—Republicans, 69; Democrats, 25. It is thought these figures will not be materially changed by complete returns. Several remote counties have not been heard from.

Alabama.

ANNISTON, Ala., Nov. 6.—The election of General Forney, the Democratic nominee for Governor, was a surprise. He was elected by an increased majority. Calhoun County alone gave him 2,000 majority, whereas the Democrats carried the whole district was very little above that figure.

Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 6.—The Connecticut Legislature is 10 to 6 Republican on joint ballot. Total vote of the State (about 120 towns official), is 135,571. Morris, Dem., has 67,581, and is 55 out of a popular majority. Official returns continue to bring in scattered votes and it is evident that no election has been made. If so, the Legislature will elect Merwin, Republican.

Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 6.—Advices to-day confirm the earlier reports sent out. Mississippi returns a solid Democratic delegation of seven to Congress by majorities ranging from 2,000 to 5,000.

Oklahoma Territory.

GETTIE, Okla., Nov. 6.—D. A. Harvey, Republican nominee for Congress, carried Oklahoma by 2,700 over McCoy, Dem.

North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 6.—The majority for the Democratic ticket is estimated at 4,000. The Congressional delegation stands eight Democrats and one Republican. The Legislature is largely Democratic.

Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 6.—Further returns from the election in this State leave no doubt that the Democratic Congressmen are elected. The Democratic gains were 12,321, and Republican gains 1,326.

Nebraska.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 6.—Advices from various parts of Nevada indicate the election of Colcord, Rep., for Governor, and Barine, Rep., for Congress, by majorities of between 500 or 600.

Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 6.—Arkansas elected a solid Democratic delegation to Congress, and there is great rejoicing throughout the State in consequence. The probable composition of the next Congress.

New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Returns received up to midnight would indicate that the Democrats have a majority of over 150 in the next Congress. "Phonograph" gains made in many States. The representation from all of the States would seem at this hour to be about as follows:

NEGRO SOCIETIES.

Some of the Quaint Colored Organizations in Washington.

I remember writing something, a year or more ago, about the endless variety of societies, associations and organizations of every sort, social, benevolent and religious, among the colored people of Washington. They quite eclipse the white people in this respect. This year beyond this life by having their burial benefit associations. If a negro is assured of a fine funeral, it seems to rob death of its sting. One of these societies—and there are many of them—will have, perhaps, 100 members. They will have a large hall, and this furnishes money enough to pay for a silver-mounted casket and carriages in which the members, wearing their regalia, ride in the long procession to the place of burial. The membership of each organization is usually limited to the desired number, and vacancies caused by death or otherwise are promptly filled. In order to insure an imposing cortege the members are required, under penalty of a fine, unless valid excuse be given, to attend all funerals. They have drill names for some of their organizations. "Grand E. E. E. United Order of True Reformers," is a mutual insurance and benefit association, with a banking department attached. It has a membership of some 8,000 in half a dozen States, extending as far as Ohio. The subordinate organizations are called "fountains." It has its headquarters in Richmond, Va., where a bank has for some years been in successful operation. It has a capital stock of $100,000, and nearly that amount of deposits. A building is now in course of erection to cost $15,000. All of which indicates a prosperous condition of affairs, and goes to show that the negroes can do business as well as those who are not negroes. The founder of this organization and the president of the bank is a negro. He was born a slave in Virginia, but ran away from his master and enlisted in the Union army. He started the fountain, as it is called, in 1881.—Washington Cor. Cleveland Herald.

The Lesser of Two Evils.

"James," exclaimed the proprietor of the store, angrily, "put that cover back on the limburger cheese." A customer came in smoking a cigarette. "James," vociferated the proprietor, "take that cover off the limburger cheese again!"—Chicago Tribune.

ENGLISH IGNORANCE.

The English Newspaper Writers Make Lamentable Display of their Ignorance of American Affairs.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—English newspapers print a great deal more American news now than was their custom up to a few years ago, but an astonishing degree of ignorance concerning American life, society and government, still prevails in quarters where substantial accuracy on such subjects would most naturally be looked for. A striking illustration of this fact is afforded by the comments which are being made upon Tuesday's election in the United States. The defeat of the Republican party is accepted not only as a repudiation of the McKinley degree of protection, but it is assumed by many writers that free trade will be put into operation immediately upon the assembling of the next Congress. The facts that the Senate will remain Republican and that a Republican President continues in office are wholly ignored. Mr. Bryce's book on "The American Commonwealth," which explained the workings of the various branches of the United States Government with remarkable clearness, and which has become highly praised and carefully studied by most of the English editorial writers. This belief that Protectionism is on the verge of overthrow accounts for a good part of the enthusiasm with which the news of the elections has been received in this country.

A CATTLEMAN SHOT.

It Looks Like a Case of Attempted Theft and Revolving in Texas. The Victim an Extensive Ranch-Owner Near Texas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 7.—David H. Greover, the well-known cattleman, was shot and fatally wounded yesterday afternoon by Charles Clifford, an ex-pugilist from San Francisco, and at present a resident of New York. Clifford and his wife were living at the Hotel Andrews for some time. On returning to his room after a short absence yesterday afternoon Clifford found the door locked and Greover inside. After Clifford had effected an entrance to the room, through a window, Greover fired all the shots on the side of the door, and then turned and shot him. Greover fell to the floor, and Clifford followed and shot him twice in the side, either wound being sufficient to cause death.

A WONDERFUL CRAFT.

Launch of the Howard Casard at Locust Point—Fireproof and Unsinkable, She is to Make Sixty-Five Miles an Hour.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 7.—Ten thousand persons cheered the reputed world-beater, "Howard Casard," as she was successfully launched at Locust Point yesterday. The ways spread and broke as the vessel went off, which momentarily shifted her temporary ballast. She was immediately righted, but not before having, partly at least, proven the assertion that she can not be capsized. It is claimed that this iron steamship, which is constructed on the Fryer plan for the Arrow Steamship Company, is capable of making sixty-five miles an hour and will revolutionize ship building. Her debut certainly marks an important epoch in marine architecture, and the best marine engineers predict perfect success for the new craft. The vessel is also claimed to be fire-proof and unsinkable. She is magnificently appointed throughout and will carry no freight.

BIRCHALL STILL CHEERFUL.

While Exhibiting Considerable Anxiety as to the Result of the Election for Governor, He Manifests a Cheerful Disposition.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Nov. 7.—Birchall exhibits considerable anxiety as to the result of the application for mercy in his case. He has asked a number of questions as to what kind of a man the Minister of Justice is, the distance to Quebec, etc., and eagerly scanned the newspapers for news from there. Although he has only a little over a week to live he still maintains the same cheerfulness that has characterized his jail-life since his confinement. Sometimes he talks of his death, but it is without any apparent dread. He says he does not fear the execution as much for himself as for his wife. The contract for the erection of the scaffold has been let and its construction will be commenced at once.

EX-MAYOR COTTRELL.
